Special Conditions for Ultra All-Inclusive Supplements:

Alcoholic Drinks: the guest understands that as per local laws there might be a ban to serve alcohol on certain days. This is out of the control of the hotel and therefore the customer agrees not to seek any compensation or rebate if such an event should happen. To note that normally this ban lasts for 24 hours.

During the holy month of Ramadan restrictions for the Food & Beverage operation will apply in accordance with the government rules.

As per U.A.E Law, alcoholic beverages are served to guests as of 21 years of age.

Restaurants can be reformed/eliminated from all-inclusive service according to hotel management decision.
