

SIX SENSES

ULUWATU, BALI

Six Senses Uluwatu, Bali

Located in the heart of Pecatu, atop a rugged cliff, Six Senses Uluwatu, Bali is near the island's renowned temple, one of six spiritual pillars of Bali. True to the signature Six Senses style, the sky suites and pool villas draw inspiration from local culture, seamlessly blending nature with luxurious comfort. The resort features opulent facilities, including a vast central pool, gym, event lawn, ballroom, and meeting rooms, as well as its own Balinese temple, offering an authentic connection to the island's rich spiritual heritage.

Merging tradition with innovation, Six Senses Uluwatu, Bali honors Balinese heritage through thoughtful design while embracing modernity. The villas, restaurants, and spa reflect the island's unique culture with a contemporary twist. Committed to emotional hospitality and respect for the local community, the resort also champions sustainable architecture, with structures that flourish under natural light, thanks to passive design strategies. All furniture is sourced from within a 1,000-kilometer radius, in line with the World Green Council's standards, further underscoring its commitment to sustainability.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Located in the southernmost tip of the Island, on the famed limestone cliff of Uluwatu, with dramatic views of the Indian Ocean, Six Senses Uluwatu, Bali offers a sense of calm and serenity where time stands still. Natural vegetation and lush landscaping provide a sense of privacy and seclusion between villas. From all facets of the Resort, whether it is from the suites and villas or the restaurants, enjoy the tranquility of uninterrupted views to the Indian Ocean.
